

Contents

Series Foreword, Sonia Nieto	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
1 Language Matters: Introduction to Language and Language Study	1
Language Myths	2
Moving Beyond Traditional Views	9
2 What We Mean By "Knowing" a Language and How We Come to Know It	12
Linguistic Competence: What It Means to "Know" a Language	12
Subsystems of Language	15
Language Acquisition	23
The Relationship Between Language and Thought	27
Changing Paradigms of Language Study	28
Applications for the Classroom	28
Personal Explorations	30
Teaching Explorations	31
3 The Power of Words	33
Words as Plowshares and Words as Weapons	34
Words and Their Sources of Power	37

Five Axioms That Scaffold Our Discussion of Meaning	40
Uses and Abuses of the Power of Words	44
The Language of Advertisers and Politicians	55
Applications for the Classroom	60
Personal Explorations	61
Teaching Explorations	62
4 Hate Language and Bully Language: The Language of Destruction	67
What Is Hate Language? Who Are Its Targets?	68
Who Are the Haters?
Structures That Undergird Hate	72
Media	73
Institutions	77
Slurs and Symbols	80
Bullying	84
Applications for the Classroom	89
Personal Explorations	93
Teaching Explorations	94
5 Language and Gender: The Cart Before the Horse?	97
Resistance to Language and Gender Study	100
Countering Resistance	101
The English Language and Its Communication of Gender	110
Culturally Embedded Gender: Media, Schools, Classroom Discourse	131
Applications for the Classroom	141
Personal Explorations	143
Teaching Explorations	143
6 Dialects: Expression or Suppression?	148
Dialect: What Is It?	151
"Standard" English	161
The Educational Institution as a Source of Linguistic Discrimination	169
Applications for the Classroom	177
Conclusion	179
Personal Explorations	180
Teaching Explorations	181
7 English Language Learners, Bilingualism, and Linguistic Imperialism	186

CONTENTS

ix

Monolingual Language Policies in the United States	188
English-Only: Efforts and Effects	194
A Range of Programs for English Language Learners	201
National Language Policy	208
Applications for the Classroom	209
Personal Explorations	215
Teaching Explorations	216
Afterword	219
Author Index	221
Subject Index	225