

1	Targeting the Favored Circle	2
	"Dangerous, Mischievous, Subversive and Offensive"	2
	My Puzzled Career	4
	Quest for Genius: The Psychological Approach	8
	Architecture and the Social	11
	Sociologists Are Critical	11
	Architects Are Not Socially Minded	13
	Architectural Discourse Avoids the Social	14
	A Sociology of Architecture Is Redundant	15
	Sociological Studies of Architecture	17
	Studies of Practice	18
	Historical-Theoretical Studies	20
	Studying Architecture as a Profession	23
	The Sociology of the Professions	25
	Defects in a Sociology of "Profession"	27
	Changing the Sociological Study of Architecture	31
	Reformulating "Profession"	31
	Abandoning "Profession" in the Social Study of Architecture	33
2	The Sociological Toolkit of Pierre Bourdieu	36
	Introducing Bourdieu	36
	Bourdieu in the Intellectual Field	37
	A Very French Sociologist	38
	Bourdieu and Other Thinkers	42
	Bourdieu and Architectural Theory	46
	Overview of Bourdieuvin Theory	47
	Bourdieu's Formal Sociology	49
	The Central Problem of Sociology	49
	Bourdieu's Resolution of the Central Problem	52
	Linking Practice to Structure	56
	Bourdieu's Model of Society	59
	Symbolic Power and Culture	59
	Symbolic Capital	62
	Strategies of Investment	64

Social Space and Class Structure	65
Historical Movement in Social Space	67
3 Architecture as a Field	68
What Culture Does	68
Culture as a Battlefield between Classes	69
Taste	71
The Field of Culture	74
Fields	74
Field and Habitus	76
Functions of the Field of Culture	78
Ensuring Closure through Culture	80
Outline of the Structure of the Field	81
The Field of Architecture	83
Basic Structure	83
Forms of Capital	88
The Quest for Autonomy	91
A Semi-Autonomous Field	94
Priests and Prophets: Conflict within the Field	98
How the Field Works: Three Examples	103
From Modern Movement to International Style	103
Attacking the Field's Autonomy	105
Decon Comes to Town	112
4 The Field through Time	122
A Threefold Social Space	122
A Study of Architectural History	125
A Portrait of the Architect	130
The Architects' Nationalities	133
The Architects' Buildings	133
Historical Growth of the Architectural Community	137
Temporal Limits	137
Per Capita Growth	140
The Two Communities of the MEA	143
Growth of the Major Sector	145
Growth of the Minor Sector	147

Historical Dynamics of the Field	151
Dynamics of the Major Sector	153
Dynamics of the Minor Sector	159
5 Understanding Architectural Education	168
The Field's New System of Reproduction	168
The Critique of Architectural Education	170
Britain: Articled Pupilage	174
France: The State Certification Model	179
Germany: Research Enters the Universities	182
The United States: An Uneasy Synthesis	184
How the Schools Socialize	187
Favoring the Favored	189
Longevity of the Studio System	204
Architecture as a Discipline	204
The Discipline in the Field	206
Structure of the Discipline	207
Architecture and Related Disciplines	210
6 Contemporary Transformations	212
The Expansion of the Subordinate Sector	212
The Permanent Crisis in Architectural Education	214
The Critique of the Intellectually Dominant	215
The Critique of the Professionally Dominant	216
Transformations of the Field	217
The New Market for Credentials	217
New Trajectories	218
Explaining Some Puzzles	220
Notes	224
Index	246