

CONTENTS

Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xii
1 Port cityscapes: a networked analysis of the built environment	1
CAROLA HEIN
PART I
Port cities: global networks and urban form	25
2 Port cities: engines of growth in an emerging Atlantic system	27
PATRICK O'FLANAGAN
3 China-towns and container terminals: shipping networks and urban patterns in port cities in global and local perspective, 1880–1980	43
LARS AMENDA
4 Seaport cities: phases of spatial restructuring and types and dimensions of redevelopment	54
DIRK SCHUBERT
5 Port cities and the global exchange of planning ideas	70
STEPHEN V. WARD
PART II
Regional dynamics of port cities: politics, people, and the built environment	87
6 Trade, politics and city space(s) in Mediterranean ports	89
SAKIS GEKAS AND MATHIEU GRENET

7	Mercantile elites in the ports of Amsterdam and Rotterdam, 1850–1940 HUIBERT SCHIJF	104
8	Treaty ports of China: dynamics of global and local in the West’s architectural presence JOHNATHAN A. FARRIS	116
9	Staring at the sea, staring at the land: waterfront modernisation in nineteenth century Ottoman cities as a site of cultural change MALTE FUHRMANN	138
10	Town planning, architecture and migrations in Suez Canal port cities: exchanges and resistances CÉLINE FRÉMAUX	156
PART III
	Dynamic landscapes: global change and local transformation	175
11	Hamburg’s port cityscape: large-scale urban transformation and the exchange of planning ideas CAROLA HEIN	177
12	How Manhattan’s port shaped its streets and building locations CAROL HERSELLE KRINSKY	198
13	Hong Kong’s global image campaign: port city transformation from British colony to Special Administrative Region of China MARISA YIU	214
14	Dubai’s Jebel Ali Port: trade, territory and infrastructure STEPHEN J. RAMOS	230
15	Conclusion and outlook: mapping global networked urban form (in port cities) CAROLA HEIN	244
	Bibliography	251
	Index	277