CONTENTS

List of figures xii
Notes on authors xiv
Acknowledgements xvi
List of abbreviations xvii

PREFACE
Purpose and structure of book 1
The role of design guidance 1
Design literature 2

PART I: INTRODUCTION

HISTORICAL REVIEW/SETTING THE SCENE 7
Society and environment in disarray: the tyranny of the car 7
Historical perspective: background to urban quality in Britain 12
THE CASE FOR URBAN QUALITY 19
The need for promotion via local government 19
The planning situation today 21
Design guidance 22
PART I: SUMMARY/KEY ASPECTS 25
Historical review/setting the scene 25
The role of design guidance in pursuit of urban quality 25

PART II: TOWN PLANNING FRAMEWORK

CONTEXT AND MACHINERY FOR DESIGN ADVICE 29
Resources and scope 29
New versus old 30
THE STATUTORY PLANNING FRAMEWORK: POLICY GUIDANCE 32
Environmental principles 32
Economic activities 33
The historic environment 34
Transport and communications 34
DEVELOPMENT PLANS 34

Local plans 35
Other plans 35
Development and planning briefs 37
DEVELOPMENT CONTROL 39
CONSERVATION AND PRESERVATION 42
Origins, concepts and differences of purpose 42
Powers and procedures of local authorities 43
Protection and enhancement: resources and practicalities 45
Public attitudes towards development and conservation 45
Benefits of conservation in practice 46
Enhancement opportunities 48
Unlisted buildings in conservation areas: the need for greater control 49
The way ahead 50
THE DEVELOPMENT PROCESS IN CONTEXT 51
Local objections/representations 54
Committee presentation/information 55
Appeals 55
Legal agreements/'planning gain' 56
FURTHER MEASURES FOR GUIDANCE AND CONTROL 56
Public consultation and participation 56
Sensitive areas/complex or major schemes 58
Developers, architects and the public 59
Planning and design guidance material 60
Land use/floorspace 62
High building strategies/building height policies 64
'NIMBY' AND LAISSEZ-FAIRE 69
OTHER MEASURES FOR OBTAINING URBAN QUALITY 70
Traffic measures and parking provision 70
Development phasing control 74
Control of demolition 75
Control of advertisements and signs 77
Nuisances 78
Enforcement of planning control, including deterrence of unauthorised development 80
URBAN ENHANCEMENT MEASURES AND PROVISIONS 83
Galbraith: 'private affluence and public squalor' dictum 83
Private and public sector joint action potential 83
Property/land value enhancement 85
Preservation pays 87
Environmental improvement via planning gain; 'percent for art'; street schemes; grant aiding; and pedestrianisation schemes 88
IN PURSUIT OF URBAN QUALITY: PUBLICITY, CONTROVERSY AND EDUCATION 98
Introduction 98
Influence of the press and the media 99
Publications, publicity and pronouncements 100

Major architectural controversies 101
New buildings in historic contexts 103
ACHIEVING QUALITY IN URBAN DESIGN 104
The Prince of Wales's 10 principles of (traditional) design 105
Francis Tibbalds: urban design guidelines/personal appreciation 110
Other influential publications 113
Design control: the RIBA/RTPI Design Accord 115
Other initiatives: The DoE's quality campaign 118
EDUCATION FOR URBAN QUALITY 119
Design awareness of the lay public 119
Design education 121
Environmental education 123
PART II: SUMMARY/KEY ASPECTS 125
Context for design advice 125
Conservation and preservation 125
The development process in context 126
Further measures for guidance and control 126
Urban enhancement measures and provisions 127
In pursuit of urban quality: publicity, controversy and education 127

PART III: PERSPECTIVE ON URBAN QUALITY

A WAY FORWARD: INVESTMENT IN URBAN QUALITY 133
New directions 134
Urban quality: the embodiment of meaning 135
PHILOSOPHY OF CONTEXT 137
DEVELOPMENT QUALITY: COMPONENT FACTORS 145
Finance and maintenance 146
Amenity 146
Traffic, parking and access 146
Security and safety 147
Order and organisation 147
THE PUBLIC REALM: NEGLECT, DECAY AND REVITALISATION 148
THE PUBLIC REALM: A HISTORIC BASIS FOR MODERN URBAN DESIGN/QUALITY 152
Introduction and review 152
Urban design in modern times 154
The roots of modern urban design 155
Urban design as 'planned evolution' 156
New towns and cities 158
URBAN QUALITY: SITUATION ANALYSIS 159
Review 159
URBAN SITUATIONS: RELEVANCE AND CAPACITY FOR CHANGE 159
Environmental capacity 163
ISSUES AND INDICATORS FOR URBAN QUALITY 168

City of Chester: (some main) issues and indicators 168
URBAN SITUATIONS: CASEBOOK 169
Context/capacity 169
Context/conservation 172
Development quality: award winners and other successes 173
Public realm: public/private sectors 174
Public realm: Midlands/North of England/Scotland 174
Public realm: waterfronts 179
The new South Africa: Cape Town 179
South-West Africa: Windhoek, Namibia 189
Design and technology 190
MODERN ARCHITECTURE: DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY 195
The design process: art, science or market exercise? 195
'The Great Divide': old v. new 198
The case for innovation and progress 200
Into Europe and the 21st century 201
INDICATORS, GENERATORS AND CRITERIA FOR URBAN QUALITY 203
Assessment of situation: a general approach/methodology 203
Design guidance and civic design 204
Public and private sector co-operation 206
SUSTAINABILITY IN URBAN QUALITY 212
Local Agenda 21 212
URBAN QUALITY: OLD AND NEW NEEDS 213
The roots of sustainability and their relevance today for urban quality 213
Sustainable revisions in land acquisition and construction realisation 214
Status and deficiencies of the UK construction industry 216
The husbandry of land 217
MECHANISMS FOR URBAN QUALITY IN A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE 218
The Urban Design Group and its aims 218
Community Development Trusts 219
NOTEBOOK: SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS 220
Provision for women in the environment 221
Racial, ethnic and religious groups 222
THE WAY AHEAD IN PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT 222
PART III: SUMMARY OF KEY ASPECTS 225
A way forward: investment in urban quality 225
Philosophy of context 225
Development quality: component factors 225
The public realm: neglect, decay and revitalisation 226
The public realm: a historic basis for modern urban design/quality 226
Urban quality: case studies 226
Modern architecture: design and technology 227
Into Europe and the 21st century 227
Indicators, generators and criteria for urban quality 228

Sustainability in urban quality 228
The way ahead in planning and development 228

Notes 229
Bibliography and References 235
Index 238