

Contents

	List of figures	xi
	List of tables	xiii
	Foreword	xvii
	Acknowledgements	xix
Introduction	Danger and modernity	1
	Chronic and extreme dangers	4
	The 'geographicalness' of risks	12
Part 1	Approaches to risk and disaster	19
Chapter 1	Risk and damaging events	21
	Approaching danger	21
	Perspectives on risks	24
	Summary	39
Chapter 2	The 'geographicalness' of disaster	40
	The space of danger and places of disaster	40
	Dangerous geography	42
	Where can one be safe?	50
	Geographical calamities	53
Chapter 3	Natural hazards	55
	Introduction	55
	Domains and classes of natural hazard	63
	Forms of endangerment	71
	Floods and droughts	80
		vii

Contents

Chapter 4	Technological hazards	91
	The scope of technological risks	91
	Occasions of technological harm	93
	Technological hazards in context	100
	Transcendent hazards	107
Chapter 5	Social hazards: violence and the disasters of war	111
	The problem of violence	111
	Violent hazards	116
	Forms of damage and processes of harm	128
Chapter 6	Vulnerability perspectives: the human ecology of endangerment	141
	The idea and scope of vulnerability	141
	The anatomy of insecurity	143
	Interpreting vulnerability	151
	Vulnerability and disease	157
	Geographies of vulnerability	164
Chapter 7	Active perspectives: responses to disaster and adjustments to risk	169
	Introduction: questions of response	169
	The context and scope of action	170
	Organisation, practice and public policy	188
	Choices, values and powers	191
Part 2	Communities at risk, places of disaster	195
Chapter 8	'Unnatural' disasters: the case of earthquake hazards	197
	Earthquake damage	202
	Earthquake risk	212
	The space of disaster events	219
	Earthquake country	224
Chapter 9	Contexts of risk: mountain land hazards and vulnerabilities	232
	Mountain habitats and risks	234
	Mountain hazards and disasters	236
	Mountain land vulnerabilities	253
	Disasters and development: two mountain land examples	255
Chapter 10	Risk in the city	266
	Urban problems	266
	Hazards and urban disasters	269
	Safe cities or defenceless spaces?	293

Chapter 11	Place annihilation: air war and the vulnerability of cities	296
	The disasters of air war	296
	The vulnerability of urban areas and civil life	305
	Place annihilation: an interpretation	319
Chapter 12	The Holocaust: genocide and geographical calamity	321
	The hazards: processes of the Holocaust	329
	Vulnerability and genocide	336
	Alternative adjustments to genocide	341
Concluding remarks	The perspective of ideas	349
Appendix		361
Bibliography		365
Index		383